

Bringing Back Peas from the Brink of Extinction in the Castlemaine District

Rare species for our district

Slender Tick-trefoil Desmodium varians
Clover Glycine Glycine latrobeana
Variable Glycine Glycine tabacina
Austral Trefoil Lotus australis

Getting rarer in our area...

Running Postman Kennedia prostrata
Austral Indigo Indigofera australis

There are many other beautiful pea species that you could add to your gardens or plant on your properties in the Muckleford/Walmer area including: Narrow-leaf Bitter-pea, Gorse Bitter-pea, Grey Parrot-pea, Red Parrot-pea, Bushy Parrot-pea, Showy Parrot-pea, Hill Flat-pea, Twiggy Bush-pea, Matted Bush-pea, Common Eutaxia, Common Wedge-pea, Purple Coral-pea, Common Hovea.

Put in your order for next year from Francis at Newstead Natives
<https://newsteadnatives.wordpress.com>

For a comprehensive guide to peas in our area, buy the book “Native Peas of the Mount Alexander Region” from Friends of the Box Ironbark Forests for $10 ($3 postage) <https://www.fobif.org.au>